

Friday 3 October 1947

- STATINTL 1. Interviewed [REDACTED] Mr. Reed, office of Chapman Revercomb, (R., W. Va.), who was referred by/Senator STATINTL that there was probably nothing for him but that his application would be sent to Personnel. Telephoned the Senator's office to this effect.
- STATINTL 2. Wrote letter to Rep. Frank L. Chelf, (D., Ky.), that there is no vacancy for [REDACTED] but that his application will be kept on file, and enclosing copy of rejection letter.
- STATINTL 3. Telephoned Mrs. Daniels, office of Senator Lister Hill, (D., Ala.), that there is no vacancy for [REDACTED] but that his application would be kept on file. Mrs. Daniels said she would probably check with us again on the case in a month or so.
4. Telephoned Mrs. Childs, office of Rep. Charles B. Hoeven, (R., Ia.), that there is no vacancy now for [REDACTED] but that his application will be kept on file. STATINTL
5. Telephoned Mrs. Seward, office of Senator C. Wayland Brooks, (R., Ill.), that there is nothing now for [REDACTED] but that his application will be kept on file. STATINTL

Approved For Release 2002/01/04 : CIA-RDP91-00682R000100050003-6

STATINTL ✓ 6. Received call from Miss Pool, secretary to Senator Elmer Thomas, (D., Okla.), re appointment for a [REDACTED] She is to come in 0900 on Monday 6 Oct.

STATINTL 7. Interviewed [REDACTED], whom Mr. Houston suggested that I see.

STATINTL ✓ 8. Received call from Miss Veeder, office of Rep. Harold Knutson, (R., Minn.), re application of [REDACTED]

STATINTL 9. Talked with Col. White and [REDACTED] appointment at Public Health. He is to go in at 1400 today.

STATINTL 10. In the absence of Mr. Pforzheimer, a telephone call was received and a message left to call [REDACTED] Called [REDACTED] who said he had not
STATINTL phoned. He added that [REDACTED] had been "tricked" into a psychi-STATINTL atric examination, but that he had advised [REDACTED] to await the outcome, and that he -- [REDACTED] was not complaining!

Approved For Release 2002/01/04 : CIA-RDP91-00682R000100050003-6